

QLD CROSS COUNTRY CUP 2017

Queensland's Champion Club

Once again, Queensland Athletics (QA) will be determining the champion club of the Cross Country Season through a point score competition.

Performances by QA club members at point scoring events during the season will contribute to the Queensland Cross Country Cup point score.

Point scoring events:

▪ Brisbane Cross Country Series: Race 1	25 March
▪ Brisbane Cross Country Series: Race 2	8 April
▪ Brisbane Cross Country Series: Race 3	22 April
▪ QLD Short Course Cross Country Championships	6 May
▪ Brisbane Cross Country Series: Race 4	13 May
▪ Brisbane Cross Country Series: Race 5	27 May
▪ Brisbane Cross Country Series: Race 6	3 June
▪ QLD Cross Country Relay Championships	10 June
▪ Brisbane Cross Country Series: Race 7	17 June
▪ QLD 8km Cross Country Championships	17 June
▪ QLD Cross Country Championships	29 July

Points will be allocated to participants based on the place achieved in each race held on the event days.

PLACE	POINTS
1st	30
2nd	25
3rd	22
4th	20
5th	19
6th	18
...	...
21st	3
22nd +	2

(points decreasing by 1 point down to a minimum of 2 points for every runner)

After each event, the points earned by QA club members will be tallied to determine the club places for the event. Clubs will then receive points for the place they achieved at the event which will be collated into a leader board for the season.

Leader board points for event placing:

CLUB PLACE	POINTS	CLUB PLACE	POINTS
1st	10	5th	4
2nd	8	6th	3
3rd	6	7th	2
4th	5	8th	1

At the conclusion of the season, the club with the highest points on the leader board will be declared the champion club and will be presented with the 2017 Queensland Cross Country Cup.

The cup presentation will be made at the conclusion of the Queensland Cross Country Championships on Saturday 29th July.
